

Mrs. Sparger Dies at Age 70; Rites Today

Mrs. Rosa Nell Sparger, 70, of 4613 Washburn, who during the 1920s delivered mail from a horse-drawn buggy at Desdemona, Eastland County, died in a Waco hospital Tuesday.

Funeral services will be at 11 a.m. Thursday in Connell Baptist Church with graveside services in Alameda Cemetery in Ranger.

Mrs. Sparger is survived by her husband; a son, Dr. Charles F. Sparger of Bethesda, Md.; daughter. Mrs. Glen H. Parmeter of Fort Worth; three brothers, Sam and Jim Perrien of Anson and John Perrien of Vallejo, Calif.; two sisters, Mrs. H.O. Davis of Corpus Christi and Mrs. Willie Vardeman of Brownwood, and one granddaughter.