

Barney Belyeu
Oilfield Pumper

BRECKENRIDGE — Barney O. Belyeu of Breckenridge, a retired oilfield pumper, died Tuesday at home. He was 77.

Funeral will be at 10 a.m. today at Morehart Mortuary in Breckenridge. Burial will be in Alameda Cemetery, Eastland County.

Mr. Belyeu was born in Comanche County and lived in Levelland before moving to Breckenridge in 1976. He was an oilfield pumper for Amoco before retiring. He was a member of Trinity Baptist Church near Breckenridge.

Survivors: Wife, Edith Belyeu of Breckenridge; two sons, Bob Belyeu of Caldwell and Jim Belyeu of Plainview; daughter, Bonnie Marsh of Breckenridge; brother, Frank Belyeu of Levelland; sister, Lorene Woodall of Long Beach, Calif.; four grandchildren; and four great-grandchildren.