

Betty Frank Veyran

Betty Frank Weekes Veyran, 79, died in 2004 in Irving, Texas. Burial was at Alameda Cemetery near Ranger, Texas.

Mrs. Veyran was born on June 25, 1925 in Eastland County to Frank and Nona "Clem" Weekes. She attended school in Ranger and went to Ranger College. She was a homemaker and a member of the First Christian Church. She traveled extensively living in Japan, Saudi Arabia and Alaska. She had friends and family from coast to coast.

Mrs. Veyran is survived by two sisters-in-law, Georgina and Yolanda Veyran of Pueblo, Mexico and many beloved nieces and nephews. She was preceded in death by her parents, husband Herb, two brothers and five sisters. Betty Frank was the light and joy of her family's life and she will be missed.