

Frank Poteet Rites Today

RANGER — Funeral for Frank A. Poteet, 79, a resident of the Alameda community south of Ranger most of his life, was to be held at 4 p. m. Friday in Killingsworth Funeral Chapel.

The Rev. Marion Dennis, pastor of Congregational Methodist Church in Gorman, was to officiate.

Burial was to be in Alameda Cemetery.

Born Sept. 18, 1888, in Nashville, Tenn., he died at 5:30 a.m., Thursday in the Blackwell Hospital in Gorman.

He married Lorene Lorett Wallace May 27, 1943, in Eastland. He was a farmer and a member of the Methodist Church.

Survivors include his wife; two sons, Roger F. and Joe D., both of the home; one sister, Mrs. Myrtle Woods of Breckenridge; a number of nieces and nephews.