

Marion F Fox

Marion F Fox of Breckenridge, was injured when his Ford coupe overturned near Newcastle. He was heading to Megargel, Texas where he had been to see about a job. The injured man was taken to the Olney Hospital by a passerby. He regained consciousness and informed hospital attendants of his identity. A brother, L. E. Fox was immediately notified and arrived at his bedside before his passing.

(Information courtesy of Searchers of Our Past)